

MyImpact Challenge
A Citizenship Project of the Bill of Rights Institute

What is the MyImpact Challenge?

The MyImpact Challenge is a citizenship project of the Bill of Rights Institute designed to foster a robust understanding of the meaning of citizenship in civil society through guided curriculum, a project, and a citizenship fair.

Students will...

- Produce a research report and personal essay
- Develop and execute a project to positively impact their community
- Present their project to community leaders
- Receive cash scholarships for winning projects

How is the MyImpact Challenge different?

- Rooted in a robust, primary-source curriculum
- Encompasses three pillars of citizenship: Entrepreneurship, Charity and Government
- Guides students to become actively engaged in creating a project of meaningful impact in their communities

Interested?

The Bill of Rights Institute is inviting select schools and student groups to participate in the 2017-2018 pilot. You can sign up for more information by going to billofrightsinsitute.org/myimpactchallenge